

JG | U Mainz

Scotland HUB

READING SCOTLAND

with Sigrid Rieuwerts

SIR
WALTER
SCOTT

Celebrating
250 Years

Priv-Doz. Dr Sigrid Rieuwerts is the Commissioner for Scotland at JGU Mainz and teaches in the English Department. She was educated at the universities of Giessen, Lancaster and Mainz and were awarded fellowships at the universities of Riga, York, Aberdeen and Edinburgh. Her teaching and research interests are in Scottish literature and culture, especially ballads. She is the author of a book on cultural narratology (Kulturnarratologie), and the (co-)editor of more than a dozen books, among them Ballads into Books: The Legacies of Francis James Child; The Ballad Repertoire of Anna Gordon, Mrs Brown of Falkland and Unter der dünnen Mondsichel: Gedichte aus Schottland (2020). Her first critical edition of Walter Scott's Minstrelsy of the Scottish Border for Edinburgh University Press is forthcoming. Her talk is on

Scott – Made in Germany

Tuesday, 20th April 2021

6.00 – 7.30 pm (German summer time) on MS Teams

www.scotland.uni-mainz.de